MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director of Training

SUBJECT : Mid-Career Course

1. You asked for our views on the attached memorandum. With regard to paragraph two I understand that neither CI Staff nor counter-intelligence itself was covered except in passing by any of the CS speakers. The problem of which representative of the CI Staff to invite to cover the subject is, of course, still a sticky one. Perhaps in a future running [REDACTED] could make a presentation, but on this particular point I suggest that the DDP be told that [REDACTED] will be conducting a survey of CI coverage in all training, including the Mid-Career Course, and will be conferring with officers with CI responsibilities in the area divisions as well as on the CI Staff. It might be well to point out to the DDP that this survey will take some time but that [REDACTED] background qualifies him to undertake the job.

2. I have no thoughts on paragraph three in the DDP memorandum but I understand that this point was covered in one of [REDACTED] memorandums on the course.

3. As for paragraph four it seems clear that [REDACTED] was used too often during the course. Perhaps in the future someone else should substitute for the DDP when he is forced to cancel his talk.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] I suggest that we start with seminars rather than courses with a view to incorporate the findings of the seminars into going courses such as the BOC, AOC, and COS Seminar.
